DEDICATION

The 1997 yearbook is dedicated to the memory of our friend and classmate Tim Bussow.

We feel so sad
when those we love
Are called to live in "The Home Above"–
But they have but gone
to prepare the way
And we'll meet them again
some happy day –

Foggy nights with street lights aglow, rainy days drip water down the kitchen window; bleak snow storms on Christmas eve nights, they all are quite inspirational sights; Sit at the piano and let the notes flow, put pencil to paper and let your hand go; get up on stage fingers dance on the keys, while a clarinet plays like wind through the trees; or possibly Shakespeare this time around, with Hamlet and his skull thinking out loud; a performer I am was and always will be, but to truly perform I must be free, I will be free.

"I have never let my schooling interfere with my education." Mark Twain. Thirteen years previous I entered the public schools a kindergartner, unfamiliar in everything. In 1997 I leave Medfield a young man, schooled in math and language, and the ways of the world. I had not learnt the way of life from any textbook or teacher, however. I thank my family and friends, and to those acquaintances in life who taught more in a minute than eighteen years of living. Thank you. P.S. The revine, 4x4 in the blazer, A.V. Proj., Ron Binnall, Exxon, volleyball, TJB I never said good bye, I'll never forget. Crash the Toyota into an apple orchard?! Them boots is made for stomping!

I've been accepted by few and understood by fewer. D.M., S.H., N.T., A.M., S.H., E.S., N.T., T.N. & E.C. — you've always been there. Thank you. I love you all. You've made this "home away from home", a reality. Finally we all escape from this town of hidden troubles. Thank God if there is one. Nora, I love you fully completely. Thanks Mum and Dad for all your trust and support and understanding.

Softball Team Doesn't Have Best Year

Captains, Jen Benoit, Jen Mohan, and Heather Foley led Medfield Girl's softball in a disappointing season. In her first year coaching Medfield, Coach Madge was let down by the teams losing record, but hopes for the best in the years to come. Junior Karen Preikszas played great, running the most home runs on the varsity team, and sophomore, Grace Cimo, had an excellent pitching season. Although all the girls have well developed skills, they found it hard to come together as a team.
